Introduction

The Induction Program for the academic year 2026–27 was organized by SECAB's A.R.S. Inamdar Arts, Science, and Commerce College & Centre for P.G. Studies in English for Women, Vijayapura, to warmly welcome the newly admitted students. The programme aimed to familiarize students with the institution's academic environment, facilities, rules and regulations, values, and various opportunities available for their overall development.

The event commenced with the recitation of the Holy Quran, and Bhagavath Geeta and the welcome address by the Principal. Faculty members, staff, and students enthusiastically participated in the programme.

The Chief Guest, Mrs. Dakhani Mam, Principal, SECAB PU Boys College, Vijayapur, delivered an inspiring and motivational speech. She encouraged the students to remain disciplined, confident, and committed to their academic journey. She emphasized the importance of hard work, ethical values, time management, communication skills, and continuous learning. She also advised students to actively participate in curricular, co-curricular, and extension activities for their holistic development.

Programme Highlights

Welcome of the Chief Guest and dignitaries.

Introduction to the college, departments, and faculty members.
